KNOWING the conditions in Lexington as we do from experience, we are not surprised over the announcement of the suspension of the Tribune in that city. Mr. Thomas M. Owsley is a brother-in-law of the writer, who could have told him that he asked him that the time is not ripe yet for a third day in the capital of the Blue Grass, even if run on different lines. A Republican himself, he assayed to run an independent paper, which cannot be done by a partisan of either party. Mr. Owsley had a finely equipped office, and apparently a good force of assistants, but a newspaper man at least could see that unless it was better supported by the advertisers it could not long pay out the $500 or $600 a week that it cost. It takes cents of money to run a daily paper on the pretentious lines adopted by Mr. Owsley and he learns too late that

Man's a vapor,
Full of woes,
Starts a paper
Up he goes!

His unnecessary, and in some cases unwarranted, attacks on public men and corporations made the paper unpopular with the class that supports newspapers and the end was longer coming than some predicted. Mr. Owsley showed much ability in newspaper work, but it is not yet written that a third daily paper can obtain a profitable foothold in Lexington. The Herald and Leader are taken practically by every family in town and the advertisers, the backbone of the support of newspapers, will not use more than one morning and one evening paper. We have tried it and we ought to know.

It is with sincere regret that we record the failure of one cherished effort, especially of one connected by family ties, and one so earnest in his confidence of success, and his assurance that he is a man with a mission, but we commend the judgment of a man who knows when to stop if he was mistaken in starting.

Mr. Owsley has a fine business in the Transylvania Publishing Company and he is by no means down and out by the suspension of the Tribune. He has a gold mine and that doubtless put him in the notion of spending some of his money on a daily. Experience is a very dear teacher, but it seems that many of us will learn in no other way.

When a bonded principal is responsible for the acts of his deputy, common sense would seem to suggest that he ought to have the appointment of that deputy. The President thinks so too, for he has just approved the Urgent Deceit bill, with a rider exempting deputy collectors and deputy United States marshals from the operations of the civil service law.

The marshals and collectors are bonded to the Government and their deputies are directly responsible to them. They should therefore have the right to choose efficient men, even if they have not passed a civil service examination. The President thinks, and very justly, that the officials named can better select their deputies because of the personal equation that would enter into the confidential relations between them. The law doubtless never intended to cramp a bonded officer in such a way, and the President has acted wisely in permitting a proper construction of it to be made.

We never took much stock in the civil service business. It has usually operated under Republican rule to exclude Democrats, when we are sure there are more better qualified Democrats than there are Republicans.

The people voted last fall for a change all along the line and their will should be respected. The Democratic party can accomplish nothing with Republican officials. A house divided against itself will fall.

Andrew Jackson was right. To the victors belong the spoils and by the eternal they should have them!

Since it seems that Lexington is to have saloons, the evil of them should be minimized as much as possible. We are therefore glad to note that Commissioner W. H. McCorkle has proposed an ordinance to abolish on short notice all the saloons in the territory surrounding the red light district. If passed it will put 15 saloons out of business and reduce the revenue of the city by $7,500. Much of the crime committed in Lexington is caused by drunken men in the district named. The saloons ought to be cut out there and be confined to a prescribed district in the center of the city. The right to retail liquors should not be sold to grocery keepers, nor should a saloon be near squares of any of the schools. We trust that Mr. McCorkle will push his ordinance to passage and then provide for the other restrictions named. If the brute cannot be killed, let it be muzzled as much as possible.

It is with sincere regret that we record the failure of one cherished effort, especially of one connected by family ties, and one so earnest in his confidence of success, and his assurance that he is a man with a mission, but we commend the judgment of a man who knows when to stop if he was mistaken in starting.

Mr. Owsley has a fine business in the Transylvania Publishing Company and he is by no means down and out by the suspension of the Tribune. He has a

In a large number of counties the fiscal court recognizing that certain officers are not sufficiently paid, are raising their salaries, especially in this case as to the Judges. Montgomery, Hardin and others are the latest to do so. The salary of an official ought to be commensurate with the dignity and duties of the office, and we do not believe that there will be much protest over the fact that Judge W. K. Shackelford's salary has been increased from $1,250 to $1,500. Madison is one of the largest and wealthiest counties in the State and is able to pay her public servants well. Certainly if the county Judge of Fayette should receive $3,000 a year, the Judge of this county should get half as much, and even then it is small pay for the work.

This long drawn-out struggle is at last ended by the appointment of Judge Jno. W. Hughes to be collector of this district, proving again that all things come to him who waits. More than twenty years ago, when Cleveland was President, Mr. Hughes was an applicant for the office and was assured of his appointment, until a mutual friend of the President and Mr. C. H. Rhodes intervened in the latter's behalf and he had to suffer disappointment. It was a long time to wait, but the end justifies it. Judge Hughes is one of Mercer county's most aggressive Democrats and his appointment will not only gratify his home folks, but be generally accepted with satisfaction, except by the other 31 applicants. He is a very capable man and will doubtless conduct the office with great credit. We congratulate him and also Senator James on the apparent happy solution of a vexed question.

The Republicans have but one chance in a thousand to defeat the splendid ticket presented by the Democrats for county officers, and that is by Democratic voters showing no interest and failing to go to the polls. We earnestly hope that not even a small number of them will be so derelict to duty as to let anything prevent them from voting as early as possible. A solid front presented to an enemy often puts it to rout. Let us rout the Republicans this time foot, horse and dragon. If every Democrat will do his duty by going to the polls and stamping under the rooster, all shades cannot prevail against us.

The new tariff law prohibits the entry into this country of cigarettes and women leaving them on their hats are liable to have them confiscated. Re-counting this fact the Frankfort State Journal says that imitation cigarettes can be made of horse hair and in view of that fact that article has jumped up to $2.50 a pound, adding that there is no reason why one of the most beautifully plumed birds should be exterminated when a horse's tail will serve for the ornamentation of woman's headgear. Just so, but think of a pretty girl switching a horse's tail every time she turns her pretty head. It is enough to make a cat catinate.

THERE is talk of segregating the negro employees of the Government at Washington. It would be a great mistake to do so. Better the elimination of all negro officials than such a step. Let us treat those in our power fairly and not close the door of hope in any man's face.

PRESIDENT Wilson has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation, fixing Thursday, Nov. 27 as the day for the Nation to return thanks for the many blessings vouchsafed to it. The people certainly have cause for thanksgiving that their faithful servants have been scourged from the temple and that they rule the country once more.

Gibson's Long Outing

A Washington dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer says that Mr. John R. Gibson, of Richmond, one of the 32 candidates since March 4, has been in Washington an aggregate of nearly six months, hoping to get the appointment. Gibson, however, is not the typical office seeker, frayed by his long vigil and willing to accept some lesser appointment. He is a well-to-do man, and his experience here this summer largely has been an outing for him.

Mr. Gibson made a strong fight, was finely endorsed and it is nothing to his discredit that he did not win.

Church Notes

Rev. Newton Taylor will preach at Kavanaugh schoolhouse Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations have joined in a campaign to raise $40,000,000 in fourteen days at New York.

Sixty-six persons were added to the Paint Lick Presbyterian church, as a result of a meeting recently held there by Rev. S. M. Logan, of Wilmore.

Dr. Scanlon is giving a series of talks each Wednesday night on the development of the church at the days of the Apostles. Much interest is being manifested in them.

The Women's Presbyterian meets at Hustonville this week. Mrs. Joe Arnold and Miss Julia Higgins are delegates from the church here and are in attendance.

There will be given a Missionary Tea at Mrs. J. B. Stouffer's on High street, on Monday next, at 4 p. m. The ladies of the church and their friends are invited. Some delightful attractions will add to the pleasures of the afternoon.

There are 51,000 Presbyterians in the State of Kentucky; the contributions for local work last year were $400,000, and for benevolence, $200,000; 2,100 persons were added to the church during the year on profession of their faith in Christ.

Elder W. H. Hall, of Franklin, Ind., representing the Temperance Board of the Christian Church, will preach the pulpit Sunday of Elder E. B. Barnes, he being engaged in a protracted meeting at Carlisle.

Sunday will be Woman's Day at the Second Christian church. All women of the church are requested to come in time for the Sunday school. The sermon for the morning will have for its subject, "Women," and the evening sermon will be "Some Avenues to God." Rev. G. C. Banks particularly urges all members to be present and make all the services profitable and inspiring. The public is cordially invited to come and enjoy the fellowship with them.

Madison Dogs

Were great favorites at the Oil Spring meet. J. L. Kanatzar, R. H. Crooke, Alex. Parrish and Jack Chenault all won prizes on their animal.

Death of Child.

The adopted child of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hackett, of White Hall, aged 15 months, died yesterday after a short illness.

Let Every Man Do His Duty.

The best city ticket ever nominated by the Democrats, must win and will win, hands down, if all Democrats do their duty. Election November 4.

Negro Killed.

The deadly "unloaded" revolver has claimed another victim. Robert and Willie Spillman, aged 18 and 21, respectively, colored boys of Lowell, engaged in a friendly scuffle over the possession of a revolver which several by-standers had pronounced empty, when the weapon exploded, the ball striking Robert Spillman below the left eye and producing almost instant death.—Lancaster Record.

Masonic Honors.

Judge W. R. Shackelford was elected Deputy Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons in annual session this week in Louisville. Jas. N. Saunders, of Stanford, was elected Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Masons by 50 votes over E. W. Weathers, of Elkton. The post is the stepping stone for the highest honors.

Mr. R. K. Burnam represented Madison Lodge at the Louisville meeting.

MARRIED

Mr. Albert Robinson and Miss Mamie Lunsford, both of Berea, were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. M. Lunsford, on the 23rd.

NEWS NOTES

George Fred Williams, of Boston, has been selected by President Wilson for Minister to Greece.

Nine persons were killed thirty-eight injured by a tornado that swept over Southern Louisiana.

Mr. W. D. Wheeler, aged 82 years, and Miss Bertha Bunch, aged 20, of Hart County, were married on the 18th.

The Rev. W. H. Gardner, of Oklahoma City, who was kidnapped in Kentucky when a child, has instituted a search for mother.

Lightning struck a marching column of the Sixth U. S. Cavalry near Galveston, Texas, killing three soldiers and a number of horses and mules.

Twenty-three former city officials were indicted at East St. Louis for alleged irregularities. They are said to have stolen more than $100,000 from the city.

Rev. William T. Capers, formerly of Lexington, now of Philadelphia, was elected by the House of Bishops to be Missionary Bishop of the District of Spokane.

Defeat for re-election of all those who oppose a constitutional amendment to assure nation-wide woman suffrage, is the plan of campaign announced by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw in Washington. Daniel Tolan, "King of the Loan Sharks," must serve six months in jail for usury, the New York Supreme Court decided. He is said to have gotten $300 on a original loan of $10.

Governor McCreary pardoned Curley Carpenter, a negro sent up for two to twenty-one years for killing another negro in Jessamine county. More than a hundred white citizens signed the petition.

By a ruling of the Attorney General and a Judge at Knoxville, clubs in that city are forbidden to receive and sell liquor to their members. The ruling is based on the new anti-shipping law of Tennessee.

The indictment against Thomas E. Watson for sending obscene literature through the mails, was quashed by the Federal court at Augusta, Ga., where Watson was the prohibition candidate for President some years ago, is alleged to have published the matter in connection with his fight against the Catholics.

This may to some extent reduce the high cost of living. A dispatch from Whitesburg says the best chestnut crop in a quarter of a century is now ripe and falling throughout the Cumberland and Black Mountains, along and contiguous to the Kentucky-Virginia border line. They sell in local markets at from $2.65 to $3 per bushel.

The Court of Appeals decides that "prisoners who were convicted of crimes committed before the indeterminate sentence act was passed and whose punishment was fixed by the verdict of the jury and the judgment of the court under the laws then in force, are not entitled to a parole as a matter of right, and such application for parole by such prisoners may be granted or refused by the board in its discretion."

The good news comes from Paducah that local poultry dealers are authority for the statement that the turkey crop in McCracken county will be unprecedented in quantity and quality this year. The early dry days of the summer were good ones for the turkeys, say the farmers, and if the cold spell continues some fat gobblers are promised for the holiday trade. Prices will be a fraction lower than last year's.

COO LIVER OIL AND IRON

Two Most World-Famed Tonics Combined in Vinol.

Cod Liver oil and Iron have proved to be the two most successful tonics the world has ever known—Iron for the blood and the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil as a strength and tissue builder for body and nerves, and for the successful treatment of throat and lung troubles.

Two eminent French chemists discovered a method of separating the curative medicinal elements of the cod's livers from the oil or grease which is thrown away, but to these medicinal elements tonic iron is now added, thus combining in Vinol the two most world famed tonics.

As a body-builder and strength creator for weak, run-down people, for feeble old people, delicate children, to restore strength after sickness; and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis or pulmonary troubles we ask you to try Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

P. S. For pimples and blotches try our Sazo Salve. We guarantee it.

Fault at Lexington.

An honest confession is good for the soul. Postmaster W. R. Smith, at Lexington, frankly admits that the letters to the Climax of last Sunday were held in his office, by the forgetfulness of a clerk who failed to tie up and dispatch the Richmond package. All right, we forgive him this time, but look out if there is a third blunder.

Fell Down Stairs.

While descending the stairs to the basement of the Richmond Millinery, Wednesday, Mrs. James Miller, of Barboursville, who is visiting her father, Squire Black, fell to the bottom. She was thought to be very seriously hurt, but examination showed that no bones were broken. She was taken to her father's home yesterday was able to come to town.

Lawyer Jeffries Dead.

Mr. Samuel A. Jeffries, well known Winchester lawyer and former County Attorney, aged 48, died in the Speer's Hospital at Dayton, Ky., following an operation for sarcoma, or enlarged glands. Mr. Jeffries was taken to the hospital Sunday for treatment. His wife was with him when he ended. Dr. J. H. Jeffries, of Union City, this county, was an only brother and he went to Dayton at once.

Rally Day Special.

President R. F. Horton and General Superintendent J. G. Crabbe have issued first-class, round-trip tickets on their special to the Methodist Sunday-school next Sunday. Starting at 9:30 a. m., the train will stop at every station, except Backside Swamp and Kickerville, and each will be treated with an address. Don't fail to be on hand when the conductor calls "all aboard!"

Death of Squire Harvey.

THE CLIMAX is in receipt of the following: "Squire Harvey, aged 65, died after a long illness, leaving a wife and six children, as follows: Mrs. Barbara Cook, Mrs. Maude Garrett, Mrs. Fannie Griffith, Messrs. Bert Harvey, Eljah Harvey and Elbridge Harvey, all residing near Valley View. Mr. Harvey will be greatly missed by all who knew him. The remains were laid to rest in the Harvey burying ground near Delphia.

Sell Eggs When Fresh.

Mr. A. L. Gott who bought a lot of eggs from a farmer yesterday, paid him only 22 cents a dozen, when if they had been strictly fresh he would have paid 25. He says the farmers make a great mistake in holding their eggs. They should bring them to market at least twice a week. The agricultural department of the United States has issued a bulletin that the producers of the country lose $15,000,000 annually in handling eggs, 105,000 of which is due to blood rings, a certain stage of chicken development.

Circuit Court.

Owing to the serious illness of his father, Judge Wm. Benton, Judge Lenton was unable to occupy the bench Wednesday and Thursday, though he came from his father's bedside long enough Thursday afternoon to receive the final report of the grand jury and discharged it. During the term 41 indictments were found, about evenly divided between felonies and misdemeanors. Only one is for murder and that against Sid Winkler for killing Wade Reeves in this city on Saturday before the August primary. The trial of this case is set for next Tuesday, the same day set for the trial of Maupin for killing Harris. Several other cases have been tried during the judge's absence by lawyers agreed upon by the parties litigant, so that the business of the court has not been materially hindered. As many of the parties indicted have not been arrested the names of all are withheld.

A Hog Story—Strange But True.

Mr. Geo. Gentry, a farmer three miles out on the Union pike, is responsible for a remarkable "hog story." It is true the story is a little "fishy" but then we have known George for many years and know him to be a truthful man and besides he never deals in "fish stories." Three months ago one of his 200 pound fat hogs failed to show up. Diligent search did not reveal his whereabouts. A few days ago the hog turned up, so weak he could hardly walk, thin in flesh, weighing only about seventy five pounds. Upon investigation it appears that the hog worked his way into a creek of bay. Some hay most fallen and closed the entrance thus confining him where he remained with only bay to feed upon and no water until a few days ago when some cattle feeding on the edge of the hay rack opened the par of entry and released the prisoner.

Work the Roads.

Today and tomorrow are the days set apart by Gov. McCreary to work the roads, but if it is as rainy everywhere as here little can be done. Judge Shackelford says that this county is working roads all the time but he issued special orders for a general rally all along the line. Madison county has some 350 miles of pikes and about as many miles of dirt road, all generally in good order.

As Judge of this county Judge Shackelford has done a great work and has devoted his entire time to the duties of his office, the ray of which is far from adequate at the increase. Up to last spring he had paid off, since taking charge, $32,000 of its bonded debt and $23,600 of the old floating debt, with $1,387.50 interest on the latter; paid for and has in active operation over $4,000 worth of heavy road machinery; $2,900 worth of land and put up $730 worth of improvements on it; collected $1,164.30 from the Federal government; has built three large bridges and about 25 smaller steel bridges in every part of the county; put in about $1,000 worth of metal culverts and gotten the roads in better condition than they have been since they were freed, and intends them to be still better every year.

By January all the debts will have been paid or provided for, and this has been done notwithstanding the tax rate has been reduced 20c and will be further reduced next year. Judge Shackelford conducts the county's affairs like he would his own business and has brought efficiency and improvement in every department. If this isn't a record to be proud of, we don't know one. An increase of salary to $2,000 would be small in comparison with the work and we are sure that appreciative people will be glad that he was given the small raise. He certainly deserves it.

TAX LAWS IN KY. CAUSES EVASION

Present Unsatisfactory Laws
Responsible for Small Returns

Retard Development and Lower Standard of Integrity—Efforts to Secure a Better System of Taxation Has Been Persistent for Fifteen Years.

Frankfort, Ky.—(Special)—The efforts to secure a better system of taxation for Kentucky have been persistent for fifteen years but owing to the ironclad restrictions in the state constitution it is exceedingly difficult to secure any change.

Tax commissions have repeatedly been appointed by authority of the legislature and these commissions have unanimously condemned the general property tax which was adopted by the last constitutional convention and as the law is constitutional it has been impossible for the legislature alone to repeal it.

However, the last general assembly undertook to amend the constitution as provided by law and this amendment will have to be ratified by the people at the November election and if it fails to carry it cannot be voted on again for another five years.

The effect of the present law is to drive people and money from the state and to prevent other people and money from coming in and building up our industries.

This is how the general property tax is regarded by outsiders as indicated in a report of a commission appointed in another state and it applies in all respects to our present tax system.

"The personal property tax is a farce, it falls inevitably upon the comparatively few who are caught.
The burden it imposes upon production is out of all proportion to the revenue it produces.

"Year after year state and local assessing boards have denounced it as impracticable in its workings and unjust in its results. These recommendations have for the most part passed unheeded or have led to ineffectual attempts to bolster up the law. It is time the situation was faced squarely, and the tax in its present form abolished.

"So far as the personal property tax attempts to reach intangible forms of wealth, its administration is so comical as to have become a byword.

"Such a method of collecting revenue would be a serious menace to democratic institutions were it not so generally recognized as a howling farce.

"But it is not a farce to those who are fully assessed. These are chiefly the widows and orphans who are caught when their property is listed at the probate court, farmers, retail merchants and others, incorporated or unincorporated, with stocks of goods, and the small investors who are not skilled enough to make non-taxable investments."

The state referred to has changed its tax system and already the receipts from taxation have increased enormously and the peculiar effect of it has been to lower the taxes on lands and improvements by securing a great revenue from personal property which had formerly produced little or no returns.

Kentucky must increase its revenues to keep up its schools and public institutions and it would be manifestly unfair to make the property at present paying taxes sustain this added burden, but under the present law there is no other recourse.

If the amendment carries and the legislature is empowered to classify property so as to bring under the assessor's scrutiny the vast amount of personal property now escaping taxation the revenues can be increased and taxes on lands and houses diminished and what is more important than all we will be able to develop our resources, maintain our population and attract capital and people who will help to build up the state.

Ohio has recently changed its tax laws and has already been benefited and Tennessee is about to renounce the general property tax. Other states have either long since abolished it or are preparing to do so.

The present system in Kentucky was popular when the country was young and wealth largely confined to real estate which could not be hidden.

Wealth is now largely in personal securities which the assessor can not locate and in consequence this class of property escapes almost entirely.

Can we afford to neglect this great question and yet hope to compete with neighboring states which are less burdened than ours naturally but have the advantage of cheap money and low taxes?

If the amendment fails to carry the next census will show that Kentucky has moved down another peg or so in its standing among the states and those at present paying taxes will inevitably have to pay more on the same property while others will escape by hiding their personal property from the assessors.

As Bad in Atlanta.

Under date of October 21, Mr. T. R.
Walton, writing from Atlanta, says:
"We had snow yesterday and frost this morning. Can you beat it?" Well, not so as you can notice it. Atlanta seems to be getting as bad in climate as this. It wasn't always thus, according to an old resident, who told us on our first visit to the Chicago of the South 20 or more years ago, that snow was so unusual there that when the great Patti was singing there one night, it got noised around in the theatre that it was snowing, when almost with one accord the audience rushed out to see it. Since then we have read of many snows there, and the citizens are almost as much used to them as we are.

Hair Doesn't Die--It Has To Be Killed.

Hair often continues to live and grow long after the death of the body. But it is often killed through neglect or misuse.
Almost always the woman or man whose hair is falling out, or is stringy, lifeless and dull-looking, is entirely to blame, because of not giving it the proper care. It is easy to take care of the hair—easy to make it more beautiful. Use Harmony Hair Beautifier, to make it glossy, soft and silky, and Harmony Shampoo to keep hair and scalp thoroughly clean.

Harmony Hair Beautifier, a delicate, delicious perfume with true rose, is very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo.
This pure liquid shampoo is most convenient to use, giving an instantaneous rich, foaming lather, that immediately penetrates in every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair, and leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00.
Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of just over a dozen 5,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the Big Harmony Laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmonies are prepared and bottled. Preparations are made. H. L.

Greek Immigration.

In 1848 arrived in New York 91,061
Irishmen, 51,973 Germans, 1 Greek.
In 1891 the number of Greek immigrants first passed three figures. In 1907 there were 48,283, including Greeks from Turkish dominions. Greeks are the most widely distributed of all recent immigrants. They are in every state, hardly a large town is without two or three.

The largest colonies are in California, 17,000; Florida, 4,000; Illinois, 30,000—21,000 in Chicago; Massachusetts, 30,000 —8,000 in Lowell; Missouri, 8,000; New York, 32,000—20,000 in the metropolis
Ohio, 10,300; Oregon, 6,000; Pennsylvania 17,900; Texas, Utah and Wyoming 4,000 each; Washington, 6,000; Wisconsin, 5,500.

All the Greeks are educated; many who work in hotels are university men.
Greek lawyers are beginning to get a foothold; 50 Greek doctors are doing good work.

Two Greek daily newspapers in New York circulate all over the country; 14 weeklies are scattered from Boston to San Francisco. There are Greek schools, societies, militia companies.

The Greek Church needs a bishop.
It is under the rule of the Metropolitan in Athens, the Patriarch in Constantinople having relinquished in his favor charge over Greeks from Turkish parts. There are 16 new churches in the Greek architectural form, of which one in Lowell cost $80,000, or $10 for each Greek in the town; 12 churches bought from other bodies, of which the one in New York cost $65,000, and services in hired halls.

Greek candy men are familiar everywhere. Greeks themselves do not like candy, though Turks do. In the West Greeks work as railroad hands and on farms. In Massachusetts they have gone into the mills in great numbers in towns where they are miserably housed.

TOO MANY HEIRLOOMS

By HENRY SCHREYER.

"No," said the girl at the museum.
"Let's not go in there. I just hate heirlooms!" she frowned with disfavor on the exhibition and turned away.

"I've been brought up among heirlooms since I can remember, and I loathe and despise them!" she said, shuddering.

"When I was a baby they began.
My best dress all through my baby-hood was the dress my mother and grandmother had been baptized in.
Of course, if they'd been noble blooded, or something, so the dress could have been delicate lace, or something.
I could have stood it, but I know my infant flesh protested against wearing for heat a yellow old unstylish piece of heavy muslin that looked like a bath robe!"

"But it was an heirloom, and in every picture I have of my babyhood I'm inclosed in that thing! I'm ashamed to show my baby pictures for people will think I'm three times my natural age, from the style of my dress!"

"Then I had a lot of great aunts, with garters, and when they saw that picture of the dress of ancient vintage nothing would do but they should turn over their rubbish and send me boxes of things almost perishing with age!
Of course, mother had to fix them up, and she usually just did as little as possible, so I could wear them a little while and then throw them away.

She felt that as much as that, when needed, to keep in with the relatives.
But there I went around, in my girlhood, with hoopskirts minus the hoops, and with moth-eaten sleeves, skin tight, when all the girls were wearing big puffs. And to appease me mother always told me that I should be proud to have heirlooms!"

"I tell you, if you want to look at heirlooms, look at me! Here I stand, a perfect museum! Look at this skirt."

"I Just Hate Heirlooms."

It was handed down from Mrs. Noah —or very nearly! Aunt Jane wrote that she had a good tailored skirt—she didn't mention the tailor died in his dotage long since—and wouldn't I like it? It was hardly used a bit, she said, and she did hope that I'd appreciate it. She had kept it for years, expecting to make some use of it, but it was always too good to cut up.

"So I accepted it as gracefully as I could, for Aunt Jane bears grudges forever if she gets them. Now she writes every week to ask how it's wearing—and she's coming down this summer, so I've got to give it a little use or she'll suspect something. She's dreadfully observant!"

"And see this trimming on my collar! Well, my Great Uncle John found that in Venice once upon a time, I suspect in some former incarnation! The gold in all tarnished, and the colors are so blended with age that it looks like a piece of leather. But you ask grandmother about it! She can see it gleaming in its pristine splendor, and she beams on me whenever I come near in this suit! As she lives with us, I have to wear it on every occasion. I can leave it at home when I go to the store, on the plea of preserving it, but if I'm dressed up grandmother is right there to see that this collar is in its proper place."

"Why, there's grown so used to seeing me in heirlooms that my younger aunts send on their old shoes! And mother, being economical and desiring to be grateful for all favors, writes back to say how delighted I am—and then we get more! And each aunt brags to the others how generous she is, and their generosity grows!"

"Our house is so full of heirlooms—all moth-eaten and rickety—that we haven't room for a decent chair, and our pictures are all enlarged photographs! But they're heirlooms—ask the people who gave them to us and see if they're not!"

"Now mother's growing stout, so she's bestowing all her outgrown things on me!"

"Actually, I think when I take things off I'll just burn them up to save some one else the agony of possession!"

"Don't show me any heirlooms. I'd rather go in here and see the way gold and silver is made into money, to buy new things to wear!"—Chicago Daily News.

Plenty of Books.

"Compulsory education is a great thing," exclaimed the little man.
"Yes," replied the big man, "but I notice that people continue to call up Avon 184 and ask for Mr. Wolf and Mr. Campbell."

Got Missing Figures

THE General Manager was presenting plans for an extension of the factory to the company's directors at Detroit. He found that he had left an estimate sheet in his desk at the factory. He called up the factory on the Bell Long Distance Telephone. His assistant read the figures to him and the directors were able to act without delay.

Annoying delays are avoided by the use of the Bell Telephone.
